4th of July ★☆★☆★☆★ 1984

Freedom to Choose!

This year's theme, submitted by 12-year-old Susan Marie Moon, was the winning entry in a contest conducted in the public and private elementary schools in Hobart. Susan, a sixth grader at George Earle School, is the daughter of Dr. Robert Moon and Janice Moon. She will be at the head of the parade with the parade marshals, Hobart's World War I vets.

There were many good suggestions for the theme, but Susan's seemed to the 4th of July committee to come closest to what the United States is all about. All of us, at least once a year, should spend a few minutes remembering that along with all of our freedoms go certain responsibilities.

There is a lot to choose from this 4th of July - more than twenty different events. We have something for everyone, no matter how old, active or passive, including some interesting new things.

We revived, by popular request, one old one, the duels. Everyone likes watching someone else get clobbered with wet sponges, pillows, or stray cream pies, but we really need people to participate. Challenge your boss, husband or wife, teen-aged children, the neighbor who mows the lawn at 6 a.m. - it's a good way to relieve frustrations without hard feelings or serious injuries.

The Chamber of Commerce will serve bratwurst and Italian and Polish sausage sandwiches at reasonable prices the evening before the parade, with part of the proceeds going to the scout cabin and part to the Statue of Liberty renovation fund.

For fisherman of all ages, we have scheduled a casting tournament, with the assistance of Bill and Betty Chadwick. All you have to do is hit the targets, no wondering about whether they're biting or if you have the right bait. (And you can still tell stories about the one that got away when it's over.) Horseshoe pitchers can compete in a tournament, too. For scholars, the Hobart City Schools are conducting a spelling bee. Kids can enter the watermelon and pie eating contest, the bubble gum competition, or a variety of races. The senior citizens at the Community Center are competing for the titles of Miss Liberty and Uncle Sam.

Good cooks (male and female) can enter pies, cakes, bread, jam, jelly and pickles. Since we seem to have had our share of rain already this year, hopefully the canoe race and the bathtub race will occur on schedule. The Hobart Firefighters are having their annual waterball fight, and the FOP and local businessmen will vie for that strange-looking trophy. The fireworks will be in Brickie Bowl (we can't have seven inches of rain in one night again - can we?) and the parade is on July 4, even though the parade route is backwards. (I have been told to keep stressing that, or half the people in town will complain because they have to look the other way. Since half the people in town have told me that, we must be halfway there. Pete Baier, who has lined up the parade for years, didn't say that. What he said was, "It took a left-handed woman to think of that one!")

That's a lot of "Freedom to Choose" for six days, and a lot of people have taken the responsibility of working very hard to provide you with that wide choice. Your responsibility? Come and watch - or better yet, enter something so all those other people have something to watch! The advertisers in this booklet and the people who rent booth space are responsible for helping to pay for the celebration - buy something from them to show your appreciation. Buy a raffle ticket and help pay for everything yourself - and possibly win a lot of free groceries. And most of all, please remember that no matter how hard we plan, details get overlooked, workers and objects sometimes don't appear when and where they are supposed to, Mother Nature doesn't always want to celebrate - a lot of things can go wrong at the last minute. No one can anticipate all the problems (or do anything about some of them) so please try to be patient with us, and have a good time!

SPECIAL NOTICE!

As a public service and as part of our continuing effort to please all of the people all of the time, we have done something for those spectators who got stiff necks last year watching the long parade. This year, stand in the same spot and look the other direction - that way, the other side of your neck can hurt.

Seriously, we are running the parade backwards this year, in an effort to avoid the usual congestion in the lineup area. The parade will start at Mundell School, proceed south on Wisconsin St., east on Third St., south on Main and Lincoln Sts., and end at 10th and Lincoln. The reviewing stand will be near City Hall.

AND THE WINNER IS . . . .

Almost everyone is capable of winning something this year - or at least coming close. For kids, we have the ever-popular, ever-so-messy Watermelon & Pie Eating Contest, four races, the Jayshees Bubble Game Contest. For the young-at-heart, we are again choosing Miss Liberty and Uncle Sam. Chefs of all ages can enter their creations in the Cake-Pie-Bread-Jam-Jelly-Pickle Contests. Fishermen (even those who can't seem to find the fish) can show off their casting ability; horseshoe pitchers can try for ringers. For expert swimmers, we have the bathtub race and the canoe race. Trophies and plaques will be presented for outstanding parade entries. Even Exposition exhibitors can win ribbons for excellent displays and/or service. If you don't qualify for any of those, you can buy a few tickets and win a lot of groceries - the odds are only 1000 to 1.

HOW ABOUT "SUPERCALLI-FRAGISTICEXPIALIDOCIOUS"?

Last year Miss Laura Procopio of Ridgeview School organized a spelling bee for children and a few Jaycees and Chamber of Commerce officers. (Erin Erby and the Chamber of Commerce won.) This year a committee of teachers is conducting an expanded spelldown, with trophies and ribbons for winners and certificates for all participants. (And if that committee happens to find any errors in this booklet, hold the red pencil - they're not spelling mistakes, they're typos.

WATERMELON & PIE EATING CONTEST

This has to be the messiest, sloppiest event, with the possible exception of the duels. It's a no-hands race against time and big-mouthed competitors, with categories for all ages. No contestant has ever choked on a seed or inhaled the meringue, but people supervising have been known to slip on seeds underfoot, which is one reason we no longer have it on an asphalt parking lot.

Two new skill events - a horseshoe pitching tournament and a casting tournament.

The casting tournament, with the assistance of Bill and Betty Chadwick, will run all day Sunday, with age categories. Targets will be on the grass.

The horseshoe tournament preliminaries will begin Monday evening and continue on Tuesday evening, with the finals the same night.

Entry blanks for both are available at the Chamber office. (Casting tournament applications are also in some sporting goods stores.)

HOBART EXPOSITION

Food, business displays, food, games, food, arts and crafts, food and more food. The Exposition, adjacent to the carnival and beer garden and most of the other events, should attract a large crowd. This year we have (so far) kites, balloons, wood crafts, watermelon, hot dogs, tacos, elephant ears, doughnuts, soft drinks, salads, fresh fruit - and more coming!

JAYCEES CANOE RACE

This perennially popular competition, still under Art Krieter's expert supervision, is now sponsored by the Hobart Jaycees. A slalom has been added to the traditional route, which should add excitement.

ESPECIALLY FOR KIDS

Old-fashioned games where agility and balance count more than speed. Let's hope the kids do better than the 4th of July chairman who fell on her face in the sack race last year. Or the Chamber members and Jaycees whose wheelbarrows seemed to have flat tires. (Or maybe it was spare tires.) We'd rather not even talk about the three-legged race - some of those kids went whizzing by like they had been Siamese twins all their lives. We're not sure which version of the spoon race is scheduled - water, potatoes, peanuts - but knowing Jerry Herzog, it will probably be raw eggs.

THE BEST OF THE WURST

And maybe a little corn, too? Anyway, you have a lot of freedom to choose here, too. On Tuesday, July 3, from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., the Hobart Chamber of Commerce will be selling sandwiches (not just bratwurst - we'll have kielbasa and salciccia, too) with potato chips and appropriate accompaniments (catsup, mustard, onions, sauerkraut, peppers) for only $1.25 per serving. Twenty cents from each sandwich sold will go to the Statue of Liberty renovation fund, and five cents will go to the Hobart Scout Cabin fund. Soft drinks will be available. Where else can you feed a family of five for under $10 while contributing to two worthy causes and watching (or participating in) kids' races, a bubblegum contest, and/or a horseshoe pitching tournament?

BATHTUB RACE

We tried to have this event last year. Bud Thorne worked very hard to get the bathtub to float, and we even got a special trophy for the winner. Then we had too much lake, and not wanting to drown anyone (intentionally, that is) we cancelled it. Barring another 7-inch downpour or a sudden drought, we'll dust off the bathtub and try again. Entrants will be timed as they paddle the tub to and around a buoy in the lake near the library.

YUM!

When we start looking for volunteers, we never have trouble finding people to work at the cake, pie, bread, etc. contest - probably because you get to taste everything in sight. This contest is not for women only; one of the more popular entries last year was Jim Nichols' bread. And some of us still want the recipe for those pickles.

DUELS!

Back by popular demand. And if any Jaycees (or Gainer Bank employees) get funny with surplus pies and firehoses this year, we may have one with real weapons! You can challenge anyone you choose. The person challenged may select the weapons - water pistols, pillows or wet sponges. If that person has especially good reasons for not appearing, he or she may send a substitute or pay a five-dollar fine. Challenge applications and rules are available at the Chamber office.

MISS LIBERTY/UNCLE SAM

With the assistance of Marge Vasquez of the Lake-Ridge OEOC, the contest this year will be held at the Community Center during the Senior Citizens' luncheon. Ruth Rigney, last year's Miss Liberty, is reportedly entering again, and maybe some of the "Sam" contestants won't chicken out this time.

JAYSHEES BUBBLE GUM

This one is for windy kids. And if past contests are any indications, their mothers had better be prepared to use steel wool on the faces when it's over. A lot of the king-sized bubbles pop before anyone has time to measure them. This one is always interesting to watch. Some of the bigger kids huff and puff and nothing much happens. Then some little shrimp produces a bubble bigger than he or she is, with no apparent effort.

BATTER UP!

Last year Nic Holzmer recruited a lot of new, younger merchants, and they won the first game. Their opponents demanded a recount (who's going to argue with a cop?) and the FOP won the second game. We don't know how they decided who got custody of the bronze beer keg; it was getting too dark for a third game.
Any "merchant" interested in playing can call Nic at Kellen's Flower Shop.
